I love mixed media
and these are some of my drawings
where I use graphite
pencils and natural pigments that I bought in India...

The expression of my paintings comes in
a variety of vibrant
colors and the use of collage...

I love making
portraits where I try to capture the soul
of the models
through their eyes

I love crafts and I
make woven
mandalas, earrings,
necklaces and I have
designed my own
notebooks...

On my trips to India I fell in love with the Tibetan culture and I decided to learn the Tibetan artistic tradition. After learning those techniques these are some of the projects I have worked on: The set of the statues of "The Sixteen Arhats" in France, painting commissions in Spain and "The paintings of the Buddhas on the ceiling of the Prayer Wheel at Oseling retreat centre in Spain among others

These are some of my paintings where I combine Tibetan traditional style and mixed media

Teaching is very rewarding and I have experience teaching art to adults but also to children in need. These photos are from my trips to India where I teach Art to Tibetan kids. I was giving creative painting workshops, Tibetan drawing workshop and Mural painting classes.
